Campbell Soup Company

May 15, 1964

Mr. A. Warhol
1324 Lexington Avenue
New York, New York

Dear Mr. Warhol:

I have followed your career for some time. Your work has earned a great deal of interest here at Campbell Soup Company for obvious reasons.

At one time I had hoped to be able to acquire one of your Campbell Soup label paintings - but I'm afraid you have gotten much too expensive for us.

I did want to tell you, however, that we admired your work and I am often inspired by your style. Please keep it up. I am taking the liberty of having a couple of cases of our Cream Soup delivered to you at this address.

We wish you continued success and good fortune.

Sincerely,
William P. MacFarland

Dear Community,

So, Hermes filed a trademark lawsuit against me on Friday—although they didn't send me or my lawyers a copy. My lawyers and I have reviewed Hermes' complaint. Hermes' claims are groundless and we look forward to defeating those claims in court and hoping to set a precedent.

I am not creating or selling fake Birkin bags. I've made art works that depict imaginary, fun-covered Birkin bags.

My lawyers at Law Lumma PLLC put it well when they said that the First Amendment gives me the right to make and sell art that depicts Birkin bags, just as it gives Andy Warhol the right to make and sell art depicting Campbell's soup cans.

I have the right also to use the term "MetaBirkins" to describe truthfully what that art depicts, and to comment artistically on those bags and on the Birkin brand.

The fact that I sell the art using NFTs doesn't change the fact that it's art. It's quite clear from reading Hermes' complaint that they don't understand what an NFT is, or what NFTs do.

We have tried to be reasonable. Hermes first sent me a letter threatening a lawsuit if I didn't knuckle under and stop doing MetaBirkins altogether. We wrote to them and explained that we were doing nothing we didn't have a right to do. We told them that we believed that the dispute could be resolved through an informal conversation between me and an Hermes representative. Hermes chose instead to break off negotiations and sue me.

I hope Hermes understands that I won't be intimidated.

HYPEBEAST

HERMES ALLEGEDLY SENDS CEASE AND DESIST TO

Dear Hermès,

So, I got your cease & desist letter. While I am sorry if you were insulted by my art, as an artist, I will not apologize for creating it.

Now, as you are aware, the First Amendment gives me every right to create art based on my interpretation of the world around me. There are countless examples of artists who reference the world and the products and cultural artifacts it's full of. With that understanding, MetaBirkins is a playful deconstruction of an existing fashion-culture landmark. It re-interprets the form, materiality and name of a beloved cultural touchpoint. MetaBirkins are also a commentary on fashion's history of animal cruelty, and its current embrace of fur-free initiatives and alternative textures. My aim is always to create additive art projects that contribute positively to the culture.

When it comes to art, selling my MetaBirkins as NFTs is akin to selling them as physical art prints. It should not be my job to educate you on advancements in the world and the culture of art. Art is art.

There is a moving tide of innovation and evolution, and it is your role as a fashion powerhouse to amplify young creatives and artists rather than stomp them out. Your actions can help determine the future of art in the Metaverse.

You can be a part of an incredible movement.

amilennialbeing It is unfortunate that brands would go for Lawsuits instead of collaborations and supporting artists who are creating in a new space. Keep up the amazing work 🙌❤️

	albertozennaro	The issue here is why Opensea doesn't stand with you, Hermes is prehistoric, Opensea is the world largest Nft marketplace and their position in this case is quite frankly ridiculous because they are setting a precedent on not protecting the community that is making them rich to the billions	1/17/2022, 1:38:27 PM

	estermalcha	The fact that they are trying to fight you just shows how mentally outdated this company is. When @gucci embraced @dapperdanharlem it was a smart, strategic move that brought dividends to all parties. These lawsuits are meh. Stale.	1/17/2022, 1:44:59 PM
